Elaine R. Sammon Admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court Bar

Farrell Fritz, P.C., is pleased to announce that on Monday, April 30, 2007, Elaine R. Sammon, counsel in the firm’s land use, zoning and municipal litigation practice groups, was admitted to the U.S. Supreme Court Bar. Sixteen Hofstra Law alumni were admitted at the group admission ceremony organized by the Office of Alumni Relations.

Professor Monroe Freedman moved the admission of the candidates before six U.S. Supreme Court Justices. Other University faculty in attendance included Interim Dean Nora V. Demleitner, Assistant Dean Lisa Berman and Director of Alumni Relations, Jeffrey Dodge.

Ms. Sammon’s legal practice focuses on litigation before the Federal and State courts and in proceedings before municipal boards and regulatory agencies. In addition to her Bar Association activities, Ms. Sammon serves on the Legislative Affairs Committee of the Long Island Women’s Agenda (LIWA). Ms. Sammon earned her Juris Doctorate from Hofstra University School of Law, her Master of Science in Applied Mathematics from the State University of New York at Stony Brook and a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from Hofstra University.

About Farrell Fritz

Farrell Fritz is a full service law firm that has earned a strong reputation in the New York business community. Highly respected for its experience in many areas of law, Farrell Fritz handles legal matters in the areas of corporate and banking; environmental law; franchise and distribution; health care; labor and employment; land use, zoning and municipal litigation; real estate; tax; trusts and estates; and creditors’ rights and bankruptcy matters for a variety of corporations, institutions and individuals. For more information, please visit our website at www.farrellfritz.com.