Darren Pascarella is a bankruptcy and creditors' rights lawyer and commercial litigator. Darren represents, among others, secured and unsecured creditors, lessors, creditors' committees, mortgagees, commercial landlords, and businesses in an array of commercial disputes in and out of bankruptcy court.

Darren is particularly known for his work involving equipment leasing and financing transactions across many industries, including transportation (aircraft, vessels, rail, motor vehicles, and trailers), medical, and construction. He represents lenders and lessors in litigation in state and federal courts throughout the United States, in connection with equipment recovery, fraud investigations and actions, workouts, and restructurings.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, Darren was an associate in the New York office of a global law firm.

Experience

- Represented equipment finance company in connection with recovery and disposition of a fleet of over 2,000 tractors and trailers it financed, which were spread throughout the U.S., after transportation logistics company abruptly discontinued operations and closed its doors.
- Represented equipment lessor in connection with defaulted multi-million dollar lease of computer equipment to a university based in California. Leveraged success in California state court litigation into restructuring of lease obligations.
- Represented shipowner in bankruptcy of a major U.S. coal mining company in connection with its bareboat charter of two vessels.
