David Goldstein is a trusts and estates lawyer handling sophisticated domestic and international estate planning and tax matters. David advises ultra-high net worth individuals and their families on matters involving cross-border trusts, multi-jurisdictional estate tax planning, pre-immigration and expatriation planning, and trust and estate administration. David provides deeply sophisticated and customized planning strategies for clients. His practice also includes planning for charitable gifts and serves as a trusted resource for creating, operating and administering private foundations.

As a thought leader in the field, David publishes informed content on a wide range of planning and wealth preservation strategies.

Prior to joining Farrell Fritz, David was a member of the Private Client Group at a New York-based AmLaw 50 law firm.
