

Ira W. Zlotnick

Partner

New York City

izlotnick@farrellfritz.com

(646) 329-1981

Ira Zlotnick is a trusts and estates lawyer advising high-net-worth individuals and families. A highly experienced professional, Ira handles all aspects of estate planning, asset protection, and estate and trust administration. Ira is a trusted advisor who often works with multi-generational families to preserve and transfer wealth to future generations by formulating and implementing sophisticated estate planning techniques.

Clients value Ira's thoughtfulness and sensitivity, as well as his comprehensive knowledge of practical and tax-efficient methods for crafting optimal estate plans tailored to the client's individual needs. Ira works collaboratively with clients to achieve their goals for a smooth transfer of assets to beneficiaries.

In matters of estate administration, Ira provides compassionate and timely assistance to families, adeptly managing the complexities inherent in fulfilling the wishes of their loved ones. His thoughtful approach ensures that his clients receive the support they need during challenging times while also preserving the integrity of their estate plans.

Experience

- Advises the owners of successful closely held businesses to maximize impactful tax strategies in the sale of their businesses and transfer of assets.
- Creates sophisticated estate plans for private clients so that they may create legacies for future generations.
- Works closely with multigenerational families to define roles and responsibilities related to trusts and estate administration.

PRACTICE AREAS

Trusts & Estates

EDUCATION

Fordham University School of Law, J.D.

New York University School of Law, LL.M. in Taxation

Brooklyn College, B.A.

ADMISSIONS

New York

Community Work

- Yeshiva University Planned Giving Committee, Member
- Ma'ayanot High School for Girls, Past Board Member
- Yeshivat Noam, Past Board Member